Odin Academy

Odin Academy provides a broad range of proven instruction, training, and testing to all levels of the corporate structure. With decades of first-hand federal law enforcement and critical incident response experience, our experts offer superior professional training based around useful and comprehensive information.

The Odin Academy's principles are founded on encouraging active learning through interactive teaching methods and efficiency in achieving successful outcomes.

“Readiness Doesn’t Just Happen”

Our training is specifically tailored to each client based on the type of industry, personnel, and critical infrastructures which may be exposed to threats through their systems, employee travel, or perceived social/environmental injustice.

Benefits

Experience of instructors:
we offer experienced-based instruction by former federal agents who spent their careers in crisis management & response

Quality of teaching:
in addition to having practical experience, our instructors also have extensive training resumes

Comprehensive curriculum: Odin Academy offers a broad menu of educational opportunities to include classroom instruction, exercises, and field training

Our training team is comprised of former law enforcement, military trainers, intelligence officers, FBI, and corporate security experts enabling us to offer an extensive, experienced-based catalog of consultation, classroom instruction, field training, and exercises. Additionally, we collaborate contractually with an expansive team of former colleagues to offer subject matter expertise across a broad curriculum of classroom and field training opportunities.

The Odin Academy catalog includes, but is not limited to:

- ▶ Tabletop Exercises (TTX)
- ▶ Crisis Management Training and TTX
- ▶ Critical Incident Response Training
- ▶ Security Guard Force Training
